

Syderstone Parish Council Co-option Policy

The co-option of a Parish Councillor occurs when a vacancy has arisen on the Parish Council and no poll (by-election) has been called.

To ensure that a fair and transparent process is undertaken, Syderstone Parish Council will use the following procedure:

1. When the Electoral Service of the Borough Council writes to confirm that the vacancy can be filled by co-option, the Clerk will:
  - a. Advertise the vacancy for 14 days on the council noticeboard and website.
  - b. Send a message to all councillors to let them know there will be a co-option.

2. Applicants for co-option will be asked to:
  - a. Provide information about themselves by completing a short application form. [A copy of the application form is attached.]
  - b. Confirm their eligibility for the position of Councillor within the statutory rules. [A copy of the Eligibility Form is attached.]

3. Copies of the application and eligibility forms will be circulated to all councillors by the Clerk, at least seven days before the meeting of the full council where the co-option will be considered. The Clerk and councillors will treat these documents as strictly private and confidential.

4. Voting will be according to the statutory requirements, in that, a successful candidate must receive an absolute majority vote of those present (or proxy) and voting. If there are more than two candidates for one vacancy, there are two methods that would be used – either by voting papers and this allows for proxy voting or by show of hands. If voting by hand and no one at the first count receives a clear majority over the rest, steps must be taken to strike off the candidate with the least number of votes. The remainder must then be put to the vote again; this process must, if necessary, be repeated until an absolute majority is obtained. In both methods of voting, the Chairman of the meeting has a second or casting vote.

5. After the vote has been concluded, the Chairman will declare the successful candidate duly elected.
